Cedar Park High School Timberwolf Band Sponsorship Program

Purpose of Sponsorship Program

To identify and cultivate sources of funding within the local community to enable the band to participate in activities and at a level that Leander ISD funding is unable to support.

To provide opportunities for community supporters to join the band in giving back to the community.

To regularly promote the businesses of sponsors within the band community.

To regularly encourage the band community to actively support and refer business to sponsors.

Example Uses of Sponsorship Funds

- Purchase Band Equipment Trailer
- Custom Loading System for Equipment Trailer
- Special Transportation (not funded by district)
- Halftime Show Design Drill & Music
- Halftime Show Props & Flags
- Marching Instructors & Technicians
- Percussion Instructors & Technicians
- Concert Band Clinicians
- Contest Entry Fees
- Winter Guard Entry Fees
- Professional Recording Services
- Communications (Website, Newsletter, Postage)

How It Works...

The Sponsorship Program is designed to give both companies and individuals within the community the opportunity to participate.

Sponsorship commitments are made on a yearly basis.

Funds contributed through the program are administered by the CPHS Band Boosters for the benefit of the Cedar Park High School Timberwolf Band.
